A CHARTER

We, the people of Manzanita, Oregon, in order to avail ourselves of self-determination in municipal affairs to the fullest extent now or hereafter possible under the Constitutions and laws of the United States and the state of Oregon, through this Charter confer upon the City the following powers, subject it to the following restrictions, prescribe for it the following procedures and governmental structure, and amend all previous Charter provisions of the City.

Chapter I
NAMES AND BOUNDARIES

Section 1. Title of Charter. This Charter may be referred to as the 1992 Manzanita Charter.

Section 2. Name of City. The City of Manzanita, Oregon, continues under this Charter to be a municipal corporation with the name City of Manzanita.

Section 3. Boundaries. The City includes all territory within its boundaries as they now exist or hereafter are modified pursuant to state law. The custodian of the City’s records shall keep an accurate, current description of the boundaries and make a copy of it available for public inspection in the City during regular City office hours.

Chapter II
POWERS

Section 4. Powers of the City. The City has all powers that the constitutions, statutes, and common law of the United States and of this state now or hereafter expressly or impliedly grant or allow the City, as fully as though this Charter specifically enumerated each of those powers.

Section 5. Construction of this Charter. In this Charter, no specification of a power is exclusive or restricts authority that the City would have if the power were not specified. The Charter shall be liberally construed, so that the City may exercise fully all its powers possible under this Charter and under United States and Oregon law. All powers are continuing unless a specific grant of power clearly indicates the contrary.

Section 6. Distribution of Powers. Except as this Charter prescribes otherwise and as the Oregon Constitution reserves municipal legislative power to the voters of the City, all powers of the City are vested in the Council.

Chapter III

The results of all elections shall be made a matter of record in the journal of the proceedings of the Council, which shall contain a statement of the total number of votes cast at each election, the votes cast for each person and for and against each proposition, the name of each person elected to office, the office to which he has been elected, and a reference to each measure enacted or approved. The Recorder shall make and sign a certificate of election to each newly elected councilor and deliver the certificate to him within one day after the canvass.

A certificate so made and delivered shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the statements contained in it, except that the Council shall be the final judge of the qualifications and election of its own members, subject, however, to review by any court of competent jurisdiction.

No elector shall sign more than one such petition pertaining to an individual candidate for office or single item to be voted on, and if he signs two or more of them relating to individual candidate or single item to be voted on, his signature shall be valid only on the first of them filed.

The signatures to a nomination petition need not all be appended to one paper, but to each separate paper of the petition shall be attached an affidavit of the circular thereof, indicating the number of signers of the paper and stating that each signature appended thereto was made in his presence and is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. With each signature shall be stated the place of residence of the signer, identified by its street and number or other description sufficient to identify it. Nomination petitions shall be in the form and filed in the manner and within the time prescribed by state law. The Recorder shall make a record of
