RE: TILLAMOOK COUNTY ORDINANCE #84 AMENDMENT #1 –
CHANGES TO COUNTY ORDINANCE REGULATING SHORT TERM RENTALS

After five months of public meetings, Tillamook County has adopted Amendment #1 to Ordinance #84 which regulates short term rentals in its unincorporated areas.

I have reviewed their new regulations and think that it is worth having the City Council review them and compare them to Manzanita's Short Term Rental Ordinance #10-03 for several reasons:

- This revision was the result of citizen concerns and complaints about short term rentals and the impact on communities; therefore, the Council may want to consider some of the changes in addressing livability issues in Manzanita.
- Because Tillamook County regulates the short term rentals in Manzanita's UGB, it can be confusing for the rental agencies to keep the ordinances straight. Making our short term rental ordinances similar to Tillamook County's, where possible, is helpful and appreciated.
- Some of Tillamook County's new regulations would be good additions to our short term rental program. For example, I think that requiring the local contact name and phone number to be posted on the exterior of all short term rentals could assist with identifying illegal rentals.

Thank you for your consideration,
